

After meeting Sal and Rebecca at the local Farmers Market in Stroudsburg and sampling La Pomme wine, I was hooked. My fiancé and I were hard at work planning the last minutes details for our wedding that was less than two weeks away. Sal and Rebecca suggested we plan a tasting at their home/winery. They opened their home to my now wife and I for not only a wine sampling but a four course dinner. The dinner was amazing- and specialized to our taste. Sal was detailed in asking what type of foods we like and then planned a meal around our favorites! We started out with scallops en crouete with a tarragon cream sauce, then moved onto shrimp with orange ginger sauce plated on a noodle cake; finally we devoured salmon with miso jalapeno cilantro lime sauce, and ended our evening with strawberries with lemon cream sauce with toasted coconut meringue. Each course was equally as tasty and plated with class. Sal even went as far as to e-mail us the menu to preview the foods prior to our arrival-what a nice touch! With each course we were served we had a different wine to go along with the beautifully presented food. The wines we sampled were sparkling apple wine, La Pomme Ice Liqueur, La Pomme Raspberry Champagne, and Cherry Kiss to name a few. This was the perfect night for us to relax, eat wonderful food, taste amazing wine, and meet terrific people! I would highly recommend going and sampling the wine at Pocono Limited Winery.

just wanted to write to tell you we had a very good time at your place last friday evening. it was an excellent way to celebrate a birthday! the wines were delicious and plentiful, our hosts' home/winery was beautiful but comfortable, and the food was very, very fine indeed. we enjoyed all 4 courses of the meal, and also enjoyed watching some of the preparations and visiting with the chef while he was cooking .by the time we left for our motel, we felt we had made 3 new friends. thank you sal, rebecca and gail for a very specail nite out! we look forward to seeing you again sometime. and we have been recommeding your dinner/wine pairings to our friends. til we meet again, janice and vinnie and thanks for the cd, it's excellent.

Rocky & Sue,

After hearing about Pocono Limited Winery on your show, I decided to surprise my husband with a night at the winery on our anniversary. Lets just say it was a great way to celebrate. He enjoyed the wine tasting. Of course he had to take some home! The food was phenomenal! I can't even do it justice by describing it any better then that. Sal catered the menu to our specific likes or dislikes. Which is great considered I'm a vegetarians and my husband isn't. And to add to the evening we had a great time with Sal, Rebecca & Gayle. It was just like having dinner with family. So to put it all together, it was a recipe for a great evening. I can't wait to visit them over the holiday season!

"Sal and Rebecca, thank you, thank you, thank you, and thank you. Celebrating our anniversary with you was the best. The food and wine were amazing and beyond words. From the time we stepped out of the car it was just a GREAT time. Mike and I agree it's a wonderful experience and you both made us feel at home. We learned a lot. We definitley will be back and both agreed this is the way we want to celebrate our anniversary every year. Can't wait to try the Apple liquer in a few weeks. Looking forward to seeing you again and bringing friends. PS I am waiting for Sal's cookbook."

This was such a nice, friendly, delicious fun experience! It is something everyone needs to try! Sal and Rebecca are the hostest with the mostest and then some! Thank you for making Giulio's birthday one he will never forget! It was a pleasure! CHEERS!

Dear Sal, Rebecca, and Gayle,

Words cannot express how absolutely perfect our evening was with you. We felt as if we were royalty.

We can't decide whether our delight with the evening is because of the spot on, personalized, menu; the clean, fresh, taste of the wine; or the warmth and personality of our hosts. No doubt, it is due to the entire package!

We have never had such a personal experience. When we presented you with the challenge of preparing a lighter fare I was a bit skeptical. Historically, we have presented our dietary needs to chefs who just didn't seem to get it. Your menu was full of rich flavors and scents and complimented each glass of wine to perfection.

The best part of eating your meal was that we didn't feel that bloated feeling when we arose from the table.

Instead, we couldn't wait for the next course which was artfully prepared just for us.

You made Kevin's 40th birthday as memorable as I wanted it to be. There aren't many truly warm and hospitable people in this world. We feel fortunate and blessed to have discovered you and can't wait to come back as regulars and bring our most special friends to meet and experience the treasure we found in the Pocono Limited Winery!

With much respect, great regard, and a world of thanks,
Mary and Kevin Casebolt
